

Minutes for February 24, 2006 at Dangerous Liaisons Conference

1. Impact of the NJ Project's being dissolved on the consortium
 - a. Need to gather information on what exactly is happening with the project
 - b. Everyone felt strongly that the student essay competition should be salvaged and perhaps be integrated with the consortium's annual conference. Also retain the prizes with contributions towards them donated by NJ Colleges and Universities.
2. At next meeting, the agenda should include the formulation of a Statement of Purpose in order to legitimize the consortium and ask for resources to sustain it.
3. Attempt to get acknowledgement from NWSA of the NJ Consortium. Ellen to request lunchtime table on regional and state consortia of women's studies programs.
4. Consortium website: Ieva to query Maria from Bergen CC regarding Website. MLHopps (TCNJ) and S. McWilliams (Montclair) to provide information to Maria.
5. Jyl Josephson to cull her notes from the consortium meeting of December 14th in order to write minutes for consortium members who could not attend that meeting.
6. Site of next annual student conference to be determined.
- 7.* Next Meeting: Rider University, Wednesday, April 19th at 12:30. Rebecca Basham will host.

Congratulations to Ieva for putting on a spectacular conference. The papers were brilliant, the company delightful, and the food excellent.

*

*-- *

Ellen G. Friedman
Director, Women's and Gender Studies Program
The College of New Jersey
P.O. Box 7718 Ewing, NJ 0828-0718
Phone: 609/771-2539 Fax: 609/637-5164